November Mission Collection

Northland Christmas Store (part of the Metropolitan Lutheran Food Pantry.) This year the Christmas Store has cut back on the amount of variety of food they are able to provide for their clients. They suggested perhaps families to fill a bag with: 1 item each of green beans, corn, rice, instant gravy, instant potatoes, corn bread mix-Jiffy, mac/cheese, Jell-O, fruit cocktail, cake mix, frosting, paper towel. These items will allow folks to have a Christmas Dinner, the meat will be provided by Farmland. The cost of these items for 1 bag would be about $10. If you can't provide a bag of food, donate any of the items listed in whatever quantity you like, anything would be helpful and appreciated. Please drop your donation off in the upstairs lobby by the round table. Questions? Please call Joyce Grady at 419-5625. THANK YOU VERY MUCH, WMT Missions

Eyeglasses for Haiti

As you know and have heard, there is a Team going to Haiti in February and it happens to be the Eye Team. (I know those of you that do wear glasses, you know how it feels to not be able to see well until you put your glasses on.) If you should have any eyeglasses that you're not using and if you would like to donate them to a wonderful cause, then please put them in the brown wicker mission basket under the Mission Board across from the Chapel. We would appreciate it very much! Thanking you in advance!! God bless you!! Missions Committee

Ronald McDonald House

On Sunday November 8th, GPC's 3rd dinner at the Ronald McDonald House (RM) took place. We (Bob & Susanne Drayer, Gladys Ellenberger, Russ, Kim & Chris Palmer, Bill, Rene & Grace Tetro and myself) participated in the serving of a hot meal. Funny, when we planned this meal of Hot Soup and Chili for a cold November day who knew it would be a warm 74 degrees. But it was okay with the RM folks as they enjoyed the hot meal. Jann Rider couldn't make it there but prepared a tasty cake for our taking with us to serve at the RM House. Not only did we provide a meal but we reached out and were there to talk to the folks, to comfort them and to let them know that God was with them and their families as they shared their stories with us. Next time to serve will be on Sunday February 14th . Can have up to 10 volunteers. Just give me a call at 419-5625. Many Thanks to all who helped this time and I look forward to serving with the next group of volunteers. God Bless you all!
