

▶ The Men's Class – Truth

Teacher: Chris Taylor

Jesus said "...and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32). The truth Jesus talked about was – and is – God's truth preserved in His Word and revealed to us through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In this class we will examine several essential Biblical truths that form the foundation of what it means to be a Christian man and have the power to transform us so that we can live confidently for God and in the unique calling He has for our lives.

Room: 221

 This class is for men only so that we can address the unique issues facing Christian men today by sharing in an open and secure environment.*

▶ Pray Always

Teacher: Mark Lancaster

During the Sunday School hour, we will gather to talk to the Lord. There will be a short lesson or scripture reading, then we will pray for what anyone would like to bring. Whether you pray out loud or to yourself, you will find others who believe that praying together and praying regularly are important.

▶ The Gospel of Mark

Teacher: Kelly Dunn

The Gospel of Matthew is written to Jews telling them that Jesus is the Messiah King who fulfills Old Testament prophecy. Mark is written to Romans telling them that Jesus is the Suffering Servant who actively ministers on our behalf and gives His life as a ransom for any. Luke is written to Greeks telling them that Jesus is the perfect Son of Man who came to save and minister to all people through the power of the Holy Spirit. John is written to the world, telling that Jesus is the fully human, fully divine Son of God in whom we must believe to have eternal life.

The Gospel of Mark is fast-moving and hard hitting! By the far the shortest of the four Gospels, it is noted as much for what it omits as what it includes. In Mark there is no genealogy of Jesus, no miraculous birth narrative with Bethlehem and shepherds, no childhood at Nazareth or visit to the temple, no Sermon on the Mount, and few parables.

To summarize, Mark recorded in rapid fire succession, specific events from the life and ministry of Jesus to prove to a Roman audience that He is the Christ, the Son of God, who served, suffered, died, and rose again as the Suffering Servant of the Lord depicted by the prophet Isaiah.

▶ College and Career

Teacher: Derek Williams & Eric Adams

College and Career will be looking at "Hot Topics", studying what the Bible says about them and discussing what the Christian response has been and should/could be.

Come and be a part of the story!

Room: 220

▶ Rejoicing in the Psalms

Teachers: Mike Brink & Matt Martinie

Many Christians are familiar with a few favorites among the Psalms that we turn to in times of great joy or a need for comfort. Each of us knows that the "LORD is my Shepherd". We know that King David was the great psalmist, recording as Psalms both great victories and times of trial. But, what if God intended the Psalms to be much more for believers than simply one of sixty-six books? Martin Luther called the book of Psalms a "little Bible" because it provides a thorough summary of all biblical doctrine. For hundreds of years following the Reformation, the Psalms were THE hymnbook for Presbyterians. Join us for this class as we study the Psalms and seek to understand how God intends His people to use them. We'll dig into the glory as well as the messiness of the Psalms, these divinely-inspired songs that capture every aspect of the Christian's experience - not just the high points. We'll also see how Christ can be found throughout the entire book, sometimes Himself leading us in praise to the Father.
